CLARION ARTS

The 7th National Fine Art & Antiques Fair

In Association with LAPADA The Association of Art & Antiques Dealers

20 - 24 JANUARY 2010

Hall 11, NEC, Birmingham B40 1NT

Visitor Information: Tel: 0121-767 2947

THE 7th NATIONAL FINE ART & ANTIQUES FAIR, presented with the support of LAPADA The Association of Art & Antiques Dealers, takes place at the National Exhibition Centre, Birmingham, from 20 – 24 January 2010. It is widely regarded as the first major antiques event of the New Year.

The Fair will take place in Hall 11, which will be transformed into a sumptuous palace of treasures, with superbly decorated room-set displays of the finest antiques and works of art. The luxurious setting will be highlighted by sparkling fountains, fabulous floral displays and ambient lighting, professionally designed and presented to enhance the timeless appeal of the country's finest antiques and works of art. A quality restaurant and licensed bar will be open for the fair.

Eighty-five leading British dealers from across the UK will offer for sale exhibits spanning 2000 years, including period furniture, paintings, decorative prints, early pottery, fine porcelain, Eastern carpets, clocks, barometers, mirrors, folk art, glass, bronze sculpture, silver and jewellery. The majority of exhibitors will be members of LAPADA The Association of Art & Antiques Dealers.

Most importantly, exhibits are strictly vetted for quality and authenticity. Prices range from less than £50 for 19th century drawings to more than £250,000 for 18th century English furniture and original paintings by LS.Lowry. Collectors, connoisseurs, interior decorators and designers from across the world attend.

High Resolution Images, editorial articles and complimentary tickets are now available.
